The image shows a screenshot of the Canva website homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Canva logo on the left, followed by menu items: "Design spotlight", "Business", "Education", "Plans and pricing", and "Learn". On the right side of the navigation bar, there are icons for help (question mark), settings (gear), a purple "Create a design" button, and a user profile icon (letter 'e').

The main content area has a dark blue background with the text "Thanks for being 1 in 100 million!". Below this text is a search bar with the placeholder text "Search your content or Canva's". Underneath the search bar is a row of seven circular icons representing different design categories: "For you" (sparkles), "Whiteboards" (green square), "Presentations" (orange presentation), "Social media" (red heart), "Videos" (purple video camera), "Websites" (blue cursor), and "More" (three dots). Each icon has its category name written below it.

Below the main content area, there is a section titled "You might want to try..." which displays a row of five design templates. From left to right, they are: "Get ideas FLOWING" (a document with sticky notes), "COUNT THE" (a pink card with confetti), "PRESENT WITH EASE" (a blue card with a bar chart), "Design your data" (a blue card with a line graph), and "PLAY WITH VIDEO" (a card with colorful balloons). A purple question mark icon is visible on the right side of this row.
